The undersigned has agreed to participate in NLADA's program as described above.

As part of its continuing legal education efforts, NLADA may record portions of its programs and make the audio and video recordings, and/or edited transcriptions thereof, available to its members and other interested professionals. We are therefore requesting your permission to record, edit, transcribe, duplicate, distribute, and perform your presentation delivered at this program, in any and all media now existing or hereafter developed, throughout the world.

As a condition of publication and without monetary compensation, we further request the nonexclusive worldwide rights to reproduce, distribute, and sell any written or visual material submitted in connection with your oral presentation, in whole or in part, in any media, as part of a course book or any other publication published under the sponsorship of NLADA and to license these rights to others. We shall have the right to edit a transcript of your presentation.

You also grant NLADA the right to use your name and voice, and, if we so choose, your photograph and biography, in connection with the presentation and the other materials.

You warrant that your presentation and accompanying material you submit are original with you, that their publication will not infringe on the rights of others, and that you have full power to grant this license. Should your presentation or other materials require permission for use by NLADA, you agree to obtain that permission from the copyright proprietor consistent with this Agreement.

The Execution of this Agreement does not obligate NLADA to publish your presentation or other materials.

I hereby consent to the use of my presentation and other materials as described and agree with the provision of this release form:
