

American Council of Chief Defenders Spring Meeting May 15-17, 2008 * San Antonio, TX

Thursday, May 15th

- 7:30 – 5:00 Registration
Alameda Foyer
- 8:00 Coffee Service Begins
Alameda
- 8:30 – 8:45 Welcome – Richard Goemann and Fern Laethem
Alameda
- 8:45 – 4:30 Training on Managing Intergenerational Issues – Shelley Langan, Technical Director, Human Resource Practices, CPS Human Resources
The training will focus on the challenges and opportunities presented by the existence of four generations in the workplace for the first time in the history of American business. Participants will learn recruitment, management and motivation techniques tailored to each generation.
Alameda
- 11:30 – 1:00 Lunch On Your Own & Time to Relax, Check with the Office, etc.

Friday, May 16th

- 8:00 – 5:00 Registration
Alameda Foyer
- 8:30 Coffee Service Begins
Alameda
- 9:00 – 12:00 Training on the Adam Walsh Act -- Bob Listenbee, Chief of the Juvenile Unit, Defender Association of Philadelphia, Nicole Pittman, Juvenile Justice Policy Expert, Defender Association of Philadelphia, Tim Young, Ohio State Public Defender, Amy Borrer, Public Information Officer, Office of the Ohio Public Defender, and other presenters to be announced

The session will include an overview of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 and a case study of how the Office of the Ohio Public Defender has struggled with the implementation of the legislation. Additionally, the session will cover what chief public defenders should be doing now in anticipation of the Act being passed in their state.

Alameda

12:00 – 1:30 Lunch On Your Own & Time to Relax, Check with the Office, etc.

1:30 – 5:00 Leadership Training – Fern Laethem, ACCD Chair & Director of Conflict Criminal Defenders in Sacramento, California

This training will consist of an interactive program developed as one part of Fern's "Leadership Academy" for Sacramento County executives. The program will focus on Ethical and Effective Decision Making as well as Dealing with Unjust Criticism.

Alameda

Saturday, May 17th

8:30 Coffee Service

Alameda

9:00 – 12:00 ACCD Business Meeting

Alameda

12:00 Adjourn