

ABA/ NLADA 2004 Equal Justice Conference

The Impact of LSC Rules on PAI Programs and Private Attorneys

David Gellman, Supervising Senior Auditor, Office of Inspector General, Legal Services Corporation (dg@oig.lsc.gov or 202/295-1665)

Patricia Gerrich, Director, Maricopa County Volunteer Lawyers Project, Phoenix, AZ (pgerrich@clsaz.org or 602/258-3434 x2630)

Linda Perle, Senior Attorney, Center for Law & Social Policy, Washington D.C. (lperle@clasp.org or 202/906-8002)

Website Links:

1. ABA Standards for Programs Providing Civil Pro Bono Legal Assistance to Persons of Limited Means, available to download at <http://www.abanet.org/legalservices/probono/standards.html>.
2. Center for Law and Social Policy
www.clasp.org
3. LSC Restrictions and Requirements: Impact on PAI Programs and Private Attorneys (October 2003 Update) by Linda Perle and Alan Houseman
http://www.abanet.org/legalservices/probono/legal_services_pai.html
4. Legal Services Corporation
www.lsc.gov
(LSC Act, Appropriations Act, LSC Regulations, etc.)
5. Legal Services Corporation
CSR- Frequently Asked Questions
<http://www.rin.lsc.gov/Rinboard/Refrmat/CSR/csrfaq12-03R.pdf>
(or visit <http://www.rin.lsc.gov/>, then click “Reference Materials,” followed by “Case Service Reporting” and scroll down to “CSR- Frequently Asked Questions.”)
6. National Legal Aid & Defender Association www.nlada.org/civil