

CHAMPIONSHIP PARTNER

Lawyering Together is a unique service-learning program which pairs Villanova Law School students with attorneys to work on pro bono cases in Philadelphia. Lawyering Together works with three public interest agencies: Philadelphia Volunteers for the Indigent Program, the SeniorLAW Center and the Support Center for Child Advocates.

Advantages of Lawyering Together:

- Free student research assistants
- Pre-screened cases from notable agencies
- Free training and consultation in all substantive areas of law
- Free CLE credit at all agency-sponsored trainings
- Full-time VLS staff member dedicated to ensuring the partnership runs smoothly

Philadelphia-area law firms are invited to become Championship Partners of the Lawyering Together Program.

Benefits of Championship Partner Status:

- ~ Special recognition in all Lawyering Together promotional materials, including brochures, articles and press releases.
- ~ Inclusion and recognition at annual Orientation dinner.
- ~ Championship Partner plaque displayed in the Career Strategy & Advancement office and at On Campus Interviews.

Requirements of Membership:

- ~ Depending on size of firm, commitment of set number of attorney volunteers per year.
- ~ Host recruitment meetings twice per year, staffed by Villanova Law School.

To become a Championship Partner firm, please contact:

Sara Woods, Esq.
Director of Public Service Careers & Pro Bono Programs
Villanova University School of Law
299 North Spring Mill Road
Villanova, PA 19085
(610) 519-7228 ~ woods@law.villanova.edu