Dear _____:

Thank you for your interest in the NYC Bankruptcy Assistance Project. We have made a determination that we cannot provide you with bankruptcy assistance at this time.

We could not take your case because _____

We can give you the following advice: _____

The advice above (if any) is the only assistance we can offer you, and we will do nothing further in this matter. Our decision not to assist you does not mean we think your case lacks merit, and we encourage you to pursue whatever other remedies you may have available to you. For example, if there is any chance that you might be able to hire an attorney, you should explore that option. To that end, you may wish to call the City Bar Lawyer Referral Service (646-442-3667) for a referral to a fee-charging attorney.

Sincerely,

For: NYC Bankruptcy Assistance Project
