RE: Decline of Assistance

Dear [salutation]:

This letter is to follow up on your meeting with the New York City Bankruptcy Assistance Project on _____. As you know, at the time that we met with you, we advised you that we did not have an attorney to assign to your case, and that we could not promise to help you in any way. After diligent attempts, we were not been able to place your case with any of our pro bono volunteers. We will therefore not be able to assist you with bankruptcy and are closing your case file.

Our decision not to assist you does not mean we think your case lacks merit, and we encourage you to pursue whatever other remedies you may have available to you. If you can pay an attorney to prepare a bankruptcy petition for you, you can call the City Bar's Lawyer Referral Service at 646-442-3667.

I am sorry that we could not help you. We wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely,

William Z. Kransdorf
Coordinator
New York City Bankruptcy Assistance Project
