

Pro Bono: Its Not Just for Lawyers

Robert Glaves, Chicago Bar Foundation, bglaves@chicagobar.org
C. Kirk Scruggs, Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, c.kirk.scruggs@bgllp.com
Clare Scott, Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., cscott@fredlaw.com
Toby Brown, Fulbright & Jaworski LLP, tjbrown@fulbright.com
Elma Garcia, Texas Lawyers Care, egarcia@texasbar.com (Moderator)

Brief Description:

This presentation will highlight innovative ways to increase legal services delivery through the use of non-legal professionals. Participants will explore how and why partnerships should be formed with non-legal professionals – such as media consultants or technology directors – who volunteer their expertise to assist with the provision of legal services to the poor. Participants will learn how accessing the expertise of non-legal professionals can serve to increase the quality and quantity of legal services for the poor.

Topical Outline:

- I. Introduction of Speakers and Attendees
- II. Overview of Topic
- III. Accessing the Expertise of Non-Legal Professionals to Increase Legal Services Delivery
- IV. Building Relationships with Non-Legal Professionals
- V. Best Practices and Tips
- VI. Questions from the Audience
- VII. Closing Remarks

Notes: