1. What is the title of the topic? Please include a description:
2. What is the legal issue?
3. How does this apply to low income/disadvantaged people, or the advancement of equal justice?
4. What background information, legal or factual, helps clarify the issue?
5. Is it important that the research and writing take a certain form (i.e. law review article, empirical study, amicus brief, draft legislation)?
6. Are there any time constraints on the project (remember that most projects will take at least a semester to complete)?
7. If a student from the Equal Justice-Applied Research class chooses your topic, are you willing to work with him/her to understand the issue and its implications? Is there any other help you can offer a student or professor working on this issue?

Please email this form to the Minnesota Justice Foundation at uofm@mnjustice.org or fax to 612-626-0056.
