

Informed Consent to Limited Scope Representation

We will forward your case to a volunteer attorney who will call you to discuss your case with you, free of charge. The volunteer attorney can provide legal information and advice to you concerning your case. The information you provide to the attorney will be held confidential.

The volunteer attorney is not your attorney. S/he will not provide ongoing legal advice or services to you, or go to court with you, unless otherwise agreed to in writing. The volunteer attorney may refer you to other organizations that may be able to assist you. If, after speaking with the volunteer attorney about your case, you have further questions or other legal issues to discuss, you must contact the AccessLine® at 402.348.1060 or 877.250.2016.

Volunteer Attorney Script

Before we begin discussing your case, I must remind you I am not your attorney; I will not go to court with you. Rather, I will be providing legal information and advice only to you today. I am not charging you for the time I spend talking with you; and, everything you tell me will be held in confidence. At the end of our conversation, I may refer you to other organizations that may be able to assist you. If, after our conversation today, you have further questions or other legal issues to discuss, you must contact the AccessLine®. Do you agree to these terms?
