ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Commit to equal justice by joining NLADA's
Corporate Advisory Committee

The Corporate Advisory Committee (CAC) of the National Legal Aid & Defender Association (NLADA) facilitates greater pro bono support for legal aid and public defender programs across the country.

CAC members assist in formulating national strategies to generate public support for federal funding of legal services and bolster resource development initiatives.

The CAC was founded in 1992 by former NLADA Board Member Jack Martin, who was then Vice President and General Counsel of Ford Motor Company. The goal was to explore the ways in which the corporate sector can help to ensure the availability of legal representation to low-income people in our nation.

John F. Schultz

Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

HEWLETT PACKARD ENTERPRISE

"NLADA's Corporate Advisory Committee (CAC) is a powerful vehicle for some of America's most gifted private sector lawyers to share their insights and expertise with NLADA and its members. CAC members have the opportunity to collaborate on bold ideas and leverage both human and financial resources to promote access to justice. The work is rewarding, the people are great and the mission is vital."

Kenneth C. Frazier

Chairman, President and CEO
MERCK & CO., INC.

“NLADA plays a vital role in providing access to justice. Serving on the CAC is one of the best ways I know for general counsel to become personally involved in this mission and to help support and direct NLADA’s efforts.”

Bruce N. Kuhlik

former Executive Vice President and General Counsel
MERCK & CO., INC.

“Serving on the CAC has been a terrific opportunity for me, not only to support NLADA, but also to provide input on its strategy and to interact with my colleagues in the corporate legal community. Through the CAC, I have become both more informed and more engaged on critical matters relating to the provision of legal services to those most in need and on the ways in which corporate legal departments can contribute to solving this pressing societal concern.”

Catherine A. Lamboley

retired Senior Vice President and General Counsel
SHELL OIL COMPANY

“It was a privilege to be a former chairperson of NLADA’s Corporate Advisory Committee. NLADA leadership and staff make membership on the CAC an easy and efficient way for America’s most influential companies to play an important role in promoting justice for all.”

ABOUT NLADA

The National Legal Aid & Defender Association (NLADA), founded in 1911, is America's oldest and largest nonprofit association devoted to excellence in the delivery of legal services to those who cannot afford counsel. NLADA has pioneered access to justice at the national, state and local levels through the creation of our public defender systems and other important institutions from The Sentencing Project to the Legal Services Corporation. A leader in the development of national standards for legal aid and indigent defense, NLADA also provides advocacy, training and technical assistance to equal justice advocates across the country.

For information or to join the CAC, please contact Helen Katz, Chief Development Officer, at (202) 452-0620, ext. 223 or via email at h.katz@nlada.org.
